This year has seen a record number of entries submitted in all categories of the UKWA Awards. The overall winners will be announced at UKWA Annual Lunch and Awards at London's Dorchester Hotel on 27 June in the presence of HRH The Princess Royal.

UKWA CEO, Peter Ward, comments: "The UKWA Awards are established as symbols of achievement and emphasise the importance of logistics within today's economy. The high number and quality of the entries we have received this year underlines the professionalism that runs through the modern logistics industry and I would like to thank all those companies and individuals that have taken the time to enter and, of course, our Awards sponsors." ■
