We are thrilled to announce that this year's special guest will be veteran Radio & TV presenter, author & journalist, 'the Grand Inquisitor' himself, John Humphrys.

John Humphrys

One of Britain's best known and most controversial broadcasters, internationally recognised as a leading authority on world politics and current affairs, John has won just about every national broadcasting award, including the Sony Gold Medal for Lifetime Achievement, which said of him: "He has truly changed the face of radio and the nature of the radio interview for an entire generation."

John will be sharing insights and stories in his uniquely wry style, as well as being interviewed by UKWA CEO Peter Ward and answering questions from the audience.
